A 31-year-old teacher from the South Georgia town of Albany said yesterday she will marry convicted Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt Dec. 22 in private ceremonies in Miami. Laura Martin said she met Hunt through mutual friends while the 59-year-old widower was serving a 32-month sentence at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., a minimum-security prison.

Hunt, whom Martin said in writing a book and painting, is "different from anyone I've ever met. He's so kind to his children and we will have his youngest son, David, 14, living with us after we are married."
